The above listing is merely a guide for your assistance and is not intended as a definitive mapping or crosswalk. The ICD-10 code that you furnish to AEL to support the testing you order should ultimately be based, not on a mapping or crosswalk, but on the patient’s medical record and your clinical knowledge and observations of the patient’s medical condition.